IMPORTANT INFORMATION

The Customs Department has a duty to protect the Principality of Zakistan from drugs, firearms and other harmful goods and to stop smugglers evading import duty. To do this, we need your help and co-operation. If a customs officer stops you and asks questions or makes checks of your baggage, please comply with their directions. If you break the rules officers may seize your goods and impose substantial penalties. For certain customs offences you could face prosecution and imprisonment.

Completion Instructions for this form are contained in the Customs leaflet entitled "Customs Traveller Declaration (Form 98) Instructions". As a general rule you should complete this form only if you are over your duty free allowances or if you have you have prohibited or restricted goods, cash or negotiable instruments. Where members of the same household arrive together the responsible household member may make one combined household declaration.

Duty free allowances for every passenger include up to 1 litre of spirits, 1 litre of wine, 0.5kg of tobacco, 50 cigars and 200 cigarettes. In addition, passengers who are Zakistan residents are normally entitled to a duty free allowance of 267 ZS per person on accompanied goods. Passengers who are visitors (non-residents) are normally entitled to a duty free allowance of 23 ZS per person on goods intended as a gift for another person. Generally duty will be assessed by Customs at the standard rate (25%) on the value of goods in excess of duty free allowances.

Controlled drugs, obscene material, fireworks, firearms and ammunition are generally prohibited from being imported. Live animals and plants, fruit, vegetables require an import permit.

Cash and negotiable instruments of a value greater than 7 500 ZS, or the equivalent amount in foreign currency must be declared to Customs. "Cash" includes coins and bank notes in any currency. "Negotiable instruments" includes monetary instruments such as cheques, travelers cheques, promissory notes and money orders.

Goods for business use must not be declared on this form. Business goods or goods bought on commission or as an accommodation for any other person must be declared separately on a Zakistan Customs and Border

Duty free allowances do not apply to business goods or to goods that are not your personal property.

Additional information regarding import prohibitions, current duty rates, rates of exchange and duty free allowances is posted near to duty payment points. Customs leaflets and public notices concerning customs declarations, the airport dual-channel (red/green) system and duty free allowances are available on the Customs Department website.
